Ready to Play in the Dirt?

There's something deeply enjoyable about working in your yard. After months of being indoors, the simple act of turning soil, trimming edges, or planting new life reconnects us to nature in a way few other activities can. Yard work isn't just maintenance, it's excellent exercise in the fresh air, with the reward of a beautiful outdoor space, making it so very satisfying.

Gardening, in particular, offers a unique blend of physical and mental benefits. Digging, lifting, and planting provide a low-impact workout, while the rhythm of the work helps clear your mind. Time spent outdoors reduces stress, lifts your mood, and rewards you with tangible results you can see grow day by day.

Of course, the right tools and materials make all the difference, and May is a great time to stock up with these great specials at Geneva Ace Hardware. Starting with quality soil sets the foundation for success. Miracle-Gro Potting Mix (50 Qt.) is just $12.50 with your Ace Rewards card, making it easy to give containers and
